

NW3C Certification Conditions

Condition Number	Point Value	Condition
		Each year of directly related* full-time work experience.
1	2 points	<ul> <li>A current resume and/or curriculum vitae is required.</li> <li>This must be current or recent experience. If there is a break in experience, the prior experience cannot be over three years prior to the date of application.</li> <li>Total cumulative point value may not exceed 20 points towards overall 25-point total.</li> </ul>
	1 point	Directly related* classroom-based or live online training that is one day (7 hours) or more and taken within the past five years.
2		<ul> <li>NW3C classes relevant to the certification application are a part of the applicant's NW3C profile and will be automatically tallied.</li> <li>Proof of successful completion of non-NW3C courses must be uploaded during the application process. Proof of successful completion can include certificates of completion and certificates of training.</li> <li>If a certificate of completion or certificate of training was not provided, a written and signed acknowledgement of training completion from the applicant's employer may be substituted.</li> <li>Total cumulative point value may not exceed 20 points of the overall total required of 25 points when combined with condition three.</li> </ul>
3	0.5 points	Directly related* asynchronous online learning that cumulatively is at least six hours, includes an assessment upon successful completion, and is taken within the past five years.
		<ul> <li>Asynchronous training occurs through online channels without real-time interaction with one or more instructors.</li> <li>NW3C online learning relevant to the certification application are a part of the applicant's NW3C profile and will be automatically tallied.</li> <li>Webinars, podcasts, and similar online content that does not include an assessment upon successful completion will not count toward this condition.</li> <li>Proof of successful completion of non-NW3C courses must be uploaded during the application process. Proof of successful completion can include certificates of completion and certificates of training.</li> <li>Completed courses that are less than six hours in duration may be combined. For example, two 1.5 hour online courses and three one-hour courses, all of which include an assessment upon successful completion, can be combined to meet the cumulative six hours for 0.5 points.</li> <li>Total cumulative point value may not exceed 20 points of the overall total required of 25</li> </ul> points when combined with condition two. Directly related* four-year undergraduate degree from an accredited institution of higher
4	6 points	<ul> <li>General criminal justice undergraduate degrees will not count toward this condition.</li> <li>An academic transcript is required as proof of successful attainment of undergraduate degree.</li> </ul>
*Dire	ctly related maa	ns training adjustion or job function that specifically involves knowledge, skills, or abilities meeting the required body of knowledge for the certification

*Directly related means, training, education, or job function that specifically involves knowledge, skills, or abilities meeting the required body of knowledge for the certification. ©2020. NW3C, Inc. d/b/a the National White Collar Crime Center. All rights reserved.

NW3C Certification Conditions

Condition Number	Point Value	Condition
5	3 points	Directly related* two-year undergraduate degree from an accredited institution of higher learning.
		<ul> <li>General criminal justice undergraduate degrees will not count toward this condition.</li> </ul>
		<ul> <li>An academic transcript is required as proof of successful attainment of undergraduate degree.</li> </ul>
6	1 point	Each year of directly related* undergraduate study from accredited institution of higher learning.
		<ul> <li>General criminal justice undergraduate degrees will not count toward this condition.</li> </ul>
		<ul> <li>An academic transcript is required as proof of successful completion of coursework.</li> </ul>
	10 points	Directly related* graduate degree from accredited institution of higher learning.
7		<ul> <li>General criminal justice graduate degrees will not count toward this condition.</li> <li>An academic transcript is required as proof of successful attainment of graduate degree.</li> </ul>
8	2 points	Directly related* undergraduate certificate from accredited institution of higher learning.
		<ul> <li>General criminal justice undergraduate certificates will not count toward this condition.</li> <li>An academic transcript is required as proof of certificate award.</li> </ul>
9	3 points	Directly related* graduate certificate from accredited institution of higher learning.
		<ul> <li>General criminal justice graduate certificates will not count toward this condition.</li> </ul>
		An academic transcript is required as proof of certificate award.
10	5 points	Current directly related* industry-recognized certification(s) from another certification body recognized by NW3C.
		<ul> <li>Proof of current status is required.</li> <li>Being certified in the use of an industry-relevant tool or application will not count toward this condition, but may be recognized in conditions two and three.</li> <li>Total cumulative point value may not exceed 10 points towards overall 25-point total.</li> <li>View industry-recognized certifications here.</li> </ul>

11	1 point	Each instance of providing directly related* skilled fact or expert witness testimony in federal or state court in a civil or criminal matter after being qualified by the court.
		• Must be documented by providing the court case number.
12	0.5 points	Each instance of providing directly related* fact testimony in federal or state court.
		• Must be documented by providing the court case number.

*Directly related means, training, education, or job function that specifically involves knowledge, skills, or abilities meeting the required body of knowledge for the certification. ©2020. NW3C, Inc. d/b/a the National White Collar Crime Center. All rights reserved.